

WILDWOOD · SANTA ROSA, CALIFORNIA

Beyond Wildwood

Some of our favorite local spots, hand-picked for you

Wildwood sits right where Santa Rosa meets the rolling hills of wine country, so you're just minutes from great food, award-winning wineries, and some of the best state parks in California.

Whether you want to sip some bold reds, hike to a lake with stunning views, enjoy a delicious meal, paddle down river, or find something to keep the kids busy, it's all close by. We've put together a list of some of our favorite spots — enjoy!

Tip: Many restaurants and wineries book up fast, especially during peak season (Apr-Oct), so it's worth calling ahead and making a reservation when you can.

Tip: Drive times listed are estimates. Wine country roads and traffic can shift things, so give yourself a little extra time, especially on weekends.
